

FRCS Ophthalmology Exempting Qualifications

Published: July 2021

PART 1

Exemption from the Part 1 examination may be granted to candidates who have achieved a pass, by the closing date for applications, in one of the following qualifications:

Awarding Body	Qualification
Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh	FRCSEd Ophthalmology Part A MRCSEd Ophthalmology Part 1 FRCSEd Ophthalmology Part 1
Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland	FRCSI (Ophthalmology) Part 1 MRCSI (Ophthalmology) Part 1
Royal College of Ophthalmologists	FRCOphth Part 1 MRCOphth Part 1
International Council of Ophthalmologists	Basic Sciences or Visual Sciences and Optics and Refractions or Optics, Refractions and Use of Instruments
Colleges of Medicine of South Africa	FC Ophth (SA) Diploma in Ophthalmology
National University of Singapore	M.Med (Ophthalmology)
College of Physicians and Surgeons of Pakistan	Fellowship in Ophthalmology
University of Colombo	MD (Ophthalmology) Module IV or M.Med (Ophthalmology) or MD (Ophthalmology) Part II

No other qualifications will be accepted for the purposes of exemption.

For Part 1 queries contact frcs1@rcpsg.ac.uk

PART 2

Exemption from the Part 2 examination may be granted to candidates who have achieved a pass, by the closing date for applications, in the following qualification:

Awarding Body	Qualification
International Council of Ophthalmologists	Clinical Sciences or Clinical Ophthalmology

No other qualifications will be accepted for the purposes of exemption.

For Part 2 queries contact frcs2@rcpsg.ac.uk